

Mr and Mrs Trish

saw

► noun

- A tool used for cutting wood, e.g. He cut the tree down with a saw; Don't put your fingers near the blade of the electric saw; Should I use an electric saw or a hand saw to cut the wood?

► verb [see, seeing, saw, seen]

- Past tense of 'see', e.g. I saw my friend on the way to school; I saw a good movie about Krishna; I saw you leaving early yesterday.

law

► noun

- The rules issued by a government, and enforced by the police, e.g. If you break the law, the police will catch you and put you in jail; Everyone should follow the law; If you steal, you are breaking the law; Spitting on the street is against the law; The Constitution contains the basic laws of the land.

paw

► noun

- The 'hand' of animals like cats and dogs, e.g. The cat is licking its paw; The bear caught a fish with its paw; The dog got a thorn in its paw.

raw

► adjective

- Not cooked, e.g. Some people eat capsicum raw (in salad) and other people eat it cooked; Raw fruits and vegetables are good for health.

dawn

► noun

- Sunrise; the early morning when the sun first appears, e.g. I like to go for a walk at dawn; The best time to see peacocks is at dawn.

claw

► noun

1. The sharp fingernails of some animals, e.g. Birds use their claws to hold onto tree branches; Bears can kill people with their claws; The monkey scratched me with its claws; Lions and tigers use their claws to grab small animals.

draw

► verb [draw, drawing, drew, drawn]

- To sketch or produce a picture by hand, e.g. Please draw me a picture of your house; He is good at drawing.

drawn

► verb [draw, drawing, drew, drawn]

- Past participle of draw, e.g. He has drawn a lovely picture of you; Who was this picture drawn by?

straw

► noun

- Dried grass; hay, e.g. Horses eat straw; There was a bale of straw in the paddock; He was sleeping on a bed of straw.

► adjective

- Made of straw, e.g. We eat lunch on a straw mat; The farmer has a straw hat.

hawk

► noun

- A large bird that eats mice, e.g. The hawk caught a mouse with its claws.

lawn

► noun

- Grass, e.g. The children were playing on the lawn in front of the house.

yawn

► verb [yawn, yawning, yawned]

- To open the mouth widely and taking a long, deep breath, often because one is tired, e.g. I was so tired that I kept yawning all the way through class; Cover your mouth when you yawn.

cue

► verb

- To give someone a signal to do something, e.g. Cue the cameraman when you want him to start shooting the video; Give me a cue when you want me to start speaking.

due

► adjective

- Scheduled; expected, e.g. The baby is due on 13th August; The train is due to arrive at 1pm.

hue

► noun

1. A color, or shade of color, e.g. I want a pencil set with all the hues of the rainbow.

Sue

► Proper noun

- A woman's name

blue

► noun / adjective

The colour of the sea, e.g. He has blue eyes; He was swimming in the deep blue sea.

glue

► noun

- A sticky substance for making things stick together, e.g. Do not put too much glue on the page, just put it around the edges.
- verb
  - To use glue to stick things together, e.g. I glued the flowers onto the page.

true

► adjective / noun

- The actual state of reality or fact; correct, e.g. He is my true friend; Is it true that you are having a baby? I told you the true story, why do you think I am lying?

clue

► noun

1. A small piece of information, e.g. Can you give me a clue about what might be in the exam tomorrow? The detective was looking for clues to help him find the thief; His tension gave us a clue that he was the one who stole the money.

flue

► noun

1. Influenza, a serious form of the common cold, e.g. This medicine is for colds and flue; He went out in the rain and caught the flue.
2. A chimney; a pipe to direct air to the outside of a building, e.g. The smoke from the fireplace leaves the house through the flue.

queue

► noun

- A line of people, e.g. Please form a queue; When I saw him, he was standing in the queue at the gas office; Don't jump the queue (go in front of others in the line)

issue

► noun

1. Something that is given at a certain time, e.g. This is the July issue of our school magazine.
2. A topic or subject, e.g. Pollution control is an issue that we should be concerned about.
3. A problem or concern e.g. Are there any issues that you wish to discuss?

tissue

► noun

- Thin paper used as a handkerchief, e.g. He used a tissue to wipe his nose.

value

► noun

1. The amount of money that is considered to be fair to buy something, e.g. What is the value of your house? The value of this car is Rs400,000 but I will sell it to you for Rs300,000.
2. Importance, e.g. You should realize the value of the education that you are receiving.
3. Moral, e.g. Stealing is against the values that we believe in.

► verb [value, valuing, valued]

4. To find important, e.g. Srila Prabhupada valued honest and hard working people; Thank you so much for your help, I really value it; We should value time and not waste it; He does not value my opinion.

venue

► noun

- A place where a given event is to happen, e.g. Have you selected the venue where you will hold your wedding? The venue of the concert is the Olympic stadium.

pursue

► verb [pursue, pursuing, pursued]

- To aim for, go after or participate in, e.g. He is pursuing a career in medicine.

statue

► noun

- A figure of a person or God, made from stone, e.g. This is a statue of an angel; Deities are not ordinary statues; In India, politicians make statues of themselves; There is a statue of Mahatma Gandhi in the park.

rescue

► verb /adjective

- To save from any violence, danger or evil, e.g. The officer rescued the child from the fire; Please rescue our earth from death by pollution; When she was lost in the jungle, a rescue party was sent out to find her.

argue

► verb

- To debate, disagree or discuss opposing or differing viewpoints, e.g. He was arguing with his brother about who the toy belongs to; Do not argue with your sister.

cruel

► adjective

- Not nice; mean; heartless, e.g. He is very cruel, he always kicks dogs; Do not say cruel words; Ravan was a cruel man.

Tuesday

► noun

- The third day of the week; the day after Monday, e.g. We have the day off on Tuesday; Lets meet again on Tuesday.